Overview

Dover College is a non-selective boarding school for students aged 11 to 18 years old. Students attend Dover College from the UK and the rest of the world which provides the boarding school with a cross section of young people from all over the world, representing many nationalities and cultures.

A broad curriculum is provided together with excellent teaching supported by first class facilities, Dover College pupils are provided with the opportunity to explore their individual talents with an environment that breeds self-confidence.

One of the strengths of Dover College are the small class sizes and friendly atmosphere which contribute hugely to the students happiness and security, which with the courtesy, respect for others and good behaviour that are insisted upon at all times produce rounded young people.

Dover College is rightly proud of its excellent pastoral care and support – both for day pupils and boarders. This care is provided through a strong House and Tutorial system which means that with the support and encouragement given students are enabled to develop their own particular strengths, both academically and outside of the classroom in extracurricular activities.
