Overview

Founded in 1935 Millfield is today the largest co-educational boarding school in the UK, offering full boarding for ages 13-18 at the Senior School. It also has a Pre-Prep and Prep School which accounts for the number of students quoted.

The school size rather than being viewed as a negative has given rise to opportunities that many other schools cannot compete with.

There is for example an Olympic-sized swimming pool, golf courses and equestrian centres; concert halls, a theatre, art gallery, music centres, a hi-tech chemistry block and 27 different sports on offer set in fantastic grounds of over 400 acres.

Average class size of 8-16 and a staff pupil ratio of 1 to every 6.5 children, with an academic programme strongly supported by an extensive extra-curricular programme in the arts, drama, music and sport, as well as a varied activity programme where pupils get to choose from over 50 activities including dance, skiing, scuba diving, Duke of Edinburgh award and more.

Pupils take part in individual sports and team games and the school competes in regional and national fixtures.

'Millfield has earned an excellent reputation for sporting success – we were the most represented school at the 2012 Olympics – our main focus is teaching pupils a broad, balanced sports programme to promote confidence, health and wellbeing'
